MEMORANDUM OF FACTS

MEMORANDUM REQUESTING COURT ORDERS 'FOR SUMMONS TO BE GIVEN TO THE PLAINTIFF FOR SERVICE' ACCORDING TO ORDER V, RULE 9-A (1) OF CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

I, Srinivas S. Devathi, plaintiff, representing myself as party-in-person in this lawsuit, an Indian citizen, state the following in the interest of equality and justice:

I attach the orders passed by this court on 31-01-2022, five pages. These orders to 'Issue summons to the defendants' must be amended suitably for the expedited issue of summons to the defendants:

- 1) I request that the Honorable court to give orders under order V rule 9-A (1) of Code of civil procedure, such that me, plaintiff, party-in-person, can service the summons to the defendants, by sending summons through India post speed post / air-mail delivery where applicable. The defendants are spread across India.

- 2) The orders when stated “summons to be issued by party-in-person / plaintiff by hand”, will provide necessary clarity to pending branch and they would hand off all responsibility of serving summons to defendants to me. I shall pay the court process fee if I am ordered to.

To address the remarks / words in the court order dated 31-01-2022, I will be submitting the following two ‘Memoranda’.

- a) Memorandum to address the phrase ‘Maintainability of suit’, by production of additional documents to address maintainability of OS 2487 of 2021 and hence this lawsuit, and pin-pointing the fraud of USPTO to the Honorable court.
- b) Memorandum with my ‘LEGAL remarks’ to address any ‘Illegal attempts’, ‘Fraudulent attempts’, ‘abuse of CPC order XXXII rules 1 to 14’, all of which constitutes ‘Treason against India’ when committed by an Indian citizen / company / organization / government / court.

With the submission of these ‘Memoranda’, I request this Honorable court to amend the court orders dated 31-01-2022 to state that the lawsuit is maintainable and THAT I MUST SUMMON THE DEFENDANTS, by sending summons along with defendant copy via India post speed post / airmail as appropriate. All of this in the interest of equality and justice.

To,

Principal city civil court judge, and Honorable judge of CCH-10

I am a party-in-person and need to get court orders amended for issuing summons, and for clarity to pending branch. I need to advance the court date for three suits OS 42/2022, OS 41/2022, and OS 40/2022 in CCH-10 to 4-2-2022.

Kindly grant permission to advance the court dates and attend hearing in court hall CCH-10 on 4-2-2022.

I will be submitting the following Memoranda and attach additional documents:

- a) Memorandum to advance the court date at 11am on 4-2-2022.
- b) Submit additional documents and pin-point the USPTO fraud to address remarks on maintainability of suit. File another memorandum for addressing anyone attempting to abuse CPC orders XXXII rules 1 to 14 (excluding rule 2-A) targeting me; and submit some documents along with it.

I need 30 minutes to present the facts to the Honorable court across all three lawsuits.

Upon availability of court time, I would like to share additional details pertaining OS 40 of 2022 by taking another 30 minutes.

And get the courts orders, ordering me to issue summons to defendants, with needed clarity for pending branch.
