MEMORANDUM FOR POSTING

According to the Honorable courts orders, I have complied with all the 'office objections'. For the following reasons, I need the petition to be posted for 'Preliminary hearing' at the earliest, 19-7-2023, or 24-7-2023. I seek 'INTERIM PRAYER RELIEF' orders.

- I must introduce the writ petition and all its annexures to the Honorable court.
- I and 'Union of India' must immediately act on scheduling my introduction of the macro-economic reform 'Project Earthling©' at an upcoming WIPO assembly session. This is the most important activity for us to execute the 62 sale agreements listed in Annexure A, and described in Annexure B. It will avoid execution of agreement 2(kkk) described in Annexure B.

- To neutralize negative tactics of my public enemies listed in annexure R, all related investigations must be initiated.
- I need orders that will issue me GST number at the earliest, and security, for the execution of 62 sale agreements.

Given the magnitude and scale of the Writ petition I request the Honorable court to allocate the most time at the earliest and on consecutive days, such that I present all annexures, and seek the INTERIM PRAYER court orders.

LEGAL STATEMENTS.

- I am the Applicant, according to Article 9(1) of annexure X, official copy of Patent Cooperation Treaty. Hence, no one can represent me, or attempt to represent me, including the respondent. This includes any lawyer, or any law firm.
- Like I state in the 'Verifying Affidavit' attached with the Writ petition, I do not have any lawyer, or any advocate representing me in this Writ petition. I shall continue to represent myself as party-in-person in front of the Honorable court until the conclusion of the Writ petition. Advocate, and Notary public Mr. Lakshminarayana, who notarized some of the annexures, does not represent me in the Writ petition. Similarly, Advocate and Notary Mr. M. S. Ballal, who notarized my verifying affidavit does not represent me in this writ petition.
